

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

ARE YOU POSTPONING THE EXAMINATION?

If you are "putting off" the examination of your eyes to some future date you are doing yourself a grave injustice. If you have them looked after now a pair of resting glasses may cause them to return to their natural condition. Our optometrist will test your visual acuity and prescribe properly for you.

HUMANE AGENT STANTON

RESIGNS THAT OFFICE

After 19 years of faithful service as local agent for the Connecticut Humane Society, Sheriff George H. Stanton has resigned, giving as his reason that with his duties as sheriff he is unable to attend to the duties of humane agent. With both offices Sheriff Stanton finds that he has not time to attend to both, especially when the humane work calls him to many outside places and takes up considerable time.

All an incumbent gets is the expense he incurs in doing his duty. The powers of the humane agents have been so curtailed that they have little power to make people who violate the laws of humanity desist from so doing.

The president is G. C. F. Williams. Clayton B. Smith is prosecutor for this county.

MILK PRODUCERS WILL

CONSIDER PRICE ADVANCE

Notices for meetings of local milk producers in eastern Connecticut have been sent out by John Taffner of Sterling, president of the Milk Producers' Union. The question to be considered is that of advancing the price of milk sent to the Boston and Providence markets. Prospective increase in freight rates is the reason given for need of higher prices than the August schedule. The basic price for August recently agreed to is 9 3/4 cents per quart, all overhead charges and surplus being taken out. While shipments are several hundred quarts daily more than in June from this section, many dairies are not shipping but are selling to nearby customers.

MOTORED TO SHARON SPRINGS

OVER THE MOHAWK TRAIL

Dr. Jonathan H. Allen of the staff of the Norwich state hospital is having three weeks' vacation, and with Mrs. Allen left early Tuesday morning for Sharon Springs, N. Y. They accompanied Mrs. Charles A. Kuebler of Washington state, and all will be guests at Ponds cottage. The trip, which was over the Mohawk trail, was made in the car of Mrs. Kuebler's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hickson of Mies place. Mr. and Mrs. Hickson intend to continue their trip, visiting friends in New Jersey and elsewhere before returning to Norwich.

Middletown.—Reports on the hospital campaign for building fund indicate that the campaign is progressing rapidly and that the $200,000 goal will be reached soon.

NEWBOYS ENJOY SPORTS

AT Y. M. C. A. ATHLETIC FIELD

By special invitation the street newboys of the city spent a busy hour and a half Tuesday evening on the Y. M. C. A. athletic field in the site of the new "Y" building opposite the post-office.

Under the leadership of J. R. Rinehart of the local association the newboys left the "Y" building on Broadway at 7 p. m. and upon arriving at the field they were put through a setting up drill which they greatly enjoyed. Following the drill, a basketball game was arranged and this caused an abundance of fun for the participants as well as for the spectators who watched the fun. A regular game of basketball was the next number of the program and while the lads did not play like professionals, they played for all that was in them.

The evening was a time of enjoyment for the boys and in all, several other like occasions will be arranged for the little "knights of the news." Milton Randall and David Vellowitz assisted Mr. Rinehart in carrying out the program.

CHIEF STANTON REPORTS

AT TORONTO CONVENTION

Fire Chief Howard L. Stanton, who is attending the international convention of the Fire Engineers' association at Toronto, made his report there Tuesday as chairman of the committee on fire department engineering.

Among the subjects taken up in his report were standard fire hose couplings, standard fire hose, other things for automobile fire apparatus, standard fire equipment for the different types of automobile fire apparatus, right side drive and control, gear shift levers to work the same way on fire apparatus and simplified wiring for fire apparatus.

LIBERTY WOOLEN MILL

STARTS SOME DEPARTMENTS

Several departments of the Liberty woolen mill at Yantic reopened Tuesday, as they had work that they could do, but the entire mill has not resumed, it closed down completely on July 17 because of the general condition of the woolen industry, and it is stated by officers of the company that the general condition remains about the same so that it is impossible to make any forecast as to a general resumption of work in all departments of the mill.

UNITED METAL MFG. CO.

BUYS THAMESVILLE LAND

The United Metal Mfg. Co., Inc., has purchased from Mrs. Augusta R. Riley land adjoining their property on Shipping street. The property was formerly owned by the late John L. Riley and extends about 35 feet west of the present plant along Shipping street with a depth of about 200 feet.

WEDDING.

Nordwald-Kronig.

Miss Rose Kronig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kronig of Berlin, and Otto Nordwald of El Paso, Tex., were married at 1 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at the Pequot Manor on Pequot avenue, New London. Rev. Dr. Samuel Gump of Providence conducted the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families.

Miss Kronig was handsomely gowned in a tricot dress and wore a becoming hat to match. Following the ceremony, a dinner was served to those present, after which Mr. and Mrs. Nordwald left for a wedding tour of several weeks to Lake Louise, after which they will reside at El Paso, where the groom is manager of the El Paso Electric Co.

Miss Kronig has always made her home in this city, where she has been prominently associated in all charitable work. She is a graduate of the Norwich Free Academy in the class of 1907, and has traveled extensively. For several summers she has, with her family, been a resident of Neptune Park, Ocean Beach, and is also a favorite among the summer colony there. Miss Kronig has just returned from Mexico, where she was visiting during the last revolution, and had exciting experiences at that time.

FUNERAL.

Daniel J. O'Connell.

Funeral services for Daniel J. O'Connell were held on Tuesday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. James McCabe, 158 Sachem street, with a large number of relatives and friends present. There were many handsome floral tributes. At the service in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Daniel F. Sullivan was celebrant of the requiem mass and Prof. Farrell was at the organ. At the close of the mass Mrs. E. L. Farrell sang Abide With Me. The casket was borne by William McCabe and Daniel Callahan. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, where Rev. Fr. Sullivan read a committal service. Cummings & Ring were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Slooberg Safe Opened

The safe at the Charles Slooberg & Co. office on Cove street which was burglarized last Saturday night and was left so that it could not be opened was opened on Tuesday by a New London locksmith who was brought here. He reported a wire and made the lock operate so that the door could be opened in a very few minutes after he set to work.

All the books were found inside the safe and nothing further is missing than the $150 in Liberty bonds and the $20 in cash which the burglars got.

81 FOR NEW COAST ARTILLERY CO. HERE

Next Tuesday evening the adjutant general of the state of Connecticut will pay an official visit to the city, where he will verify and inspect the enlistment and medical papers of the coast artillery company, National guard, recently formed by Captain William R. Mahan. The inspection and verification by the officer will complete the first step toward the organization of the National guard unit.

The report of the adjutant general will then be forwarded to the war department at Washington and a regular army officer will be sent to this city to conduct final verification and muster the men into the service. The unit will then become a part of the national guard of the United States and the state of Connecticut and incidentally is a part of the regular army.

Notices have been sent to every man to report at the state armory at 8 o'clock sharp in order that the entire formalities may go through without a hitch. Many services men have been called up as well as others and the local company now numbers 81.

The roster of the local company is as follows: Louis J. Adams, Onofrio Amedeo, Romeo L. Archibald, Ernest J. Bartolucci, Louis A. Bazinet, Henry P. Beausell, Jr., Oliver M. Bellefleur, Allen T. Bixby, Fred C. Blanchard, Anthony Boucher, Desire J. Bourdon.

BRANDREGE'S SECRETARY REPLIES TO LETTER ABOUT COAL

C. F. Wells, president of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce, who recently sent a letter to Senator Brandegee asking him to take up the matter of coal shortages, has received a reply from the Interstate Commerce Commission, which has received the following reply:

July 24, 1920.
Mr. C. F. Wells, President, Chamber of Commerce, Norwich, Conn.

My Dear Sir: In the absence of Senator Brandegee, I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your telegram of the 27th, instant, and to the coal situation in New England. I have taken pleasure in bringing the matter to the attention of the Interstate Commerce Commission and will communicate with you again when I receive further information in the premises.

Yours very truly,
W. DON LUNDY,
Secretary.

That manufacturers are in sympathy with the action of the local chamber of commerce is evidenced by the following letter to President Wells from the Iron-steel Board Corp.:

Norwich, July 26, 1920.
Mr. C. F. Wells, President, Chamber of Commerce, Norwich, Conn.

Dear Mr. Wells: Your favor of the 24th inst., at hand this morning, please accept my sincere thanks for action taken and allow me to compliment you in the manner in which it has been disposed of.

Our morning papers intimate that the combined efforts of all those interested have proven quite successful and now New England will be given preference in the matter of fuel. The next step will be to have the Interstate Commerce Commission to follow requirements closely to end of providing 100 per cent supply without causing congestion at various coal docks.

Our meeting should be taken up at the next meeting of the Rotary club where every member will be instructed to interest themselves to the extent necessary to support efforts made up to date.

Yours very truly,
THE IRON-STEEL BOARD CORP.,
J. B. MAYO,
President.

SUBMARINE SCHOOL OPEN

FOR FORMER SERVICE MEN

Word has been received at the navy recruiting station, New London, that 450 previous service men were needed at the submarine school to fill the following named ratings: Machinist's mates, engine room mates, (G) electricians, (G) gunner's mates, electricians, (G) firemen, seamen, quarter-masters and ship's cooks.

Previous service men enlisting for this duty will be given a submarine base at New London, Conn., or at San Pedro, Cal., as they desire. Men with previous army or marine corps service can enlist as seamen, second class, for this duty unless they have a trade.

All men serving on board submarines receive $15 extra each month and when they are qualified for submarine service they will receive $1 per dive up to 15 dives a month.

Previous service men enlisting for this service who have no trade will be sent to submarine base at New London, Conn., or at San Pedro, Cal., for a period of two to four months' special training as they desire.

Further information can be obtained at the navy recruiting station, 4 Bank street, New London, Conn.

GOLFERS DEPART TO PLAY

IN MORE BIG MATCHES

Walter Hagen, national golf champion, who paired with Jim Barnes Monday in an exhibition match against Harry Vardon and Ted Ray on the links of the Shennecossett Country club at Eastern Point, left Tuesday for New York and will go to the state of New York to play in an exhibition match against the metropolitan open championship, which he won last year. Among the outsiders who will compete for the trophy of 1920 are Jim Barnes and J. Douglas Edgar and Harry Vardon.

One of the pair of golfers who defeated Vardon and Ray, the Britons, at Greenwich last week.

MISS BONFOE ABLE TO TELL LITTLE ABOUT ABSENCE

Miss Faith Bonfoe, who left the Hartford retreat last Tuesday morning and disappeared voluntarily Thursday evening, has so far recovered from the fatigue caused by her unexplained absence that she is now able to question her. Little definite information has been obtained, however, and it seems evident that during her absence she was in a dazed condition. It is not known whether the letter carrier who delivered the letter to her at her home in Hartford, and it is thought likely that she was with friends. Wherever she went, she returned unharmed and, after a long rest, appears no worse for her experience.

Miss Bonfoe was formerly a teacher at the Norwich Free Academy.

"Judge" Hayt Testifies

Veteran Judge of the Racing Circuit Tells of the Worth of Var-ne-sis

Proof That VAR-NE-SIS CONQUERS RHEUMATISM

For 35 years Mr. George Hayt of 15 Athens St., Rochester, N. Y., has been an official as presiding and starting judge for harness horses at races all over the country.

He said: "I suffered from rheumatism for five years; at times could scarcely walk. My left hand was helpless for six or eight weeks; the left shoulder badly involved, and running up into the head. I used to go up and down stairs on my hands and knees. My stomach, too, was in very bad shape, and I felt I did not get relief I would have to give up business. I took many remedies, but received no benefit. When I began taking Var-ne-sis I was in constant pain, but after a short time I began to feel relieved. The pain left me, my stomach trouble disappeared. I am absolutely free from rheumatic pain, and feeling better than I have for years."

FORMER NORWICH WORKERS ON METROPOLITAN MUSEUM STAFF

There is Norwich interest in the annual statement of the great educational work of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, since the curator, Edward Robinson, has arranged that fine costs in Slater Museum, Norwich, where its secretary, Henry Watson Kent was the first curator. Miss Juliet Warner Robinson and Miss Winifred Riva Howe formerly of Norwich, are members of the Museum staff.

To make the Museum collections serviceable to the public and art students, and to the pupils in the public and private schools of New York city and vicinity is the constant effort of the members of the educational staff, working on behalf of the trustees.

Toward this end series of free public lectures are given Saturday and Sunday afternoons, story-hours for the children of members and for all children are conducted weekly, special seminars are planned for saleable and students are well as gallery talks for teachers and pupils and lectures for the deaf, blind, and crippled. Three class rooms are fitted up for carrying on class and lecture work, and an auditorium seating about five hundred is provided for larger groups.

Four members of the staff devote their time exclusively to the work of museum instruction, and their services may be obtained for a small fee by any visitor who desires to see the collections under expert guidance and will make an appointment in advance. A reference library and a collection of photographs are open to the public, and a large collection of lantern slides is available on Johnson, Mass., and other places east of the Mississippi. Opportunity to copy the objects in the collections themselves is granted with reasonable restrictions.

A study room of textiles has been fitted up with every facility for the use of the large collection of looms and textiles, and other study rooms in different parts of the building are arranged for the convenience of those who wish to study the various collections at length.

SCANTY COURTESY SHOWN

BY INQUIRER ABOUT RACE

Ever since the races between the Shamrock and the Resolute have been on, The Bulletin office has been swamped with telephone calls about the race. The Bulletin is always glad to answer any inquiries to the best of our knowledge, but on the other hand we also appreciate courtesy at the other end of the wire.

Our telephone wire at the present time does not open until 1 o'clock, and we get very little time until the next day afternoon one person called up and asked about the outcome of the race. When told that The Bulletin's wire had not opened, and that there was no news, the inquirer said: "I am sorry, but you've got a fine paper! What's the matter with you, anyhow? Your wire not open! Well, your mouth is always open," and so on. This poor crowd would have run on along this line indefinitely if one local man had not become disgusted and hung up the receiver.

The Bulletin doesn't charge for this kind of service, but, as the old saying is, "You can't have more flies with sugar than with vinegar."

TRUST CO. ASSETS GAIN

$30,120,356 IN THE YEAR

The state bank department gave out on Tuesday a statement showing the condition of the trust companies of the state at the close of the fiscal year ended June 30, together with figures of their condition at the corresponding period a year ago. The total assets of all the trust companies in the state at the close of the year amounted to $194,000,449.51, as against $185,345,563.24 for 1919. This shows an increase of $8,654,886.27.

The savings deposits in the banks of trust companies amounted on June
